POLICE GET NEW CLUE IN THE SUIT CASE MYSTERY

LAST NIGHT FOR SUSPECT

ROUTE BUYER OF SUIT CASES TOOK FROM BERKMAN'S STORE TO PLEASANT STREET SUBWAY

"PAY $500 OR DIE," BLACK HAND NOTE TO 2 LONELY WOMEN

70-YEAR-OLD SISTERS ARM THEMSELVES, THEN TELL POLICE.

If you don't pay us $500 will kill both or either of you.—Black Hand message sent to aged Dunstable women.

DUNSTABLE, N. H., Oct. 4.—Threatened with a horrible death unless they withdrew their little savings from the bank in Nashua and pay the money over to blackmailers who pointed a death warning on their heads, the Misses Hannah M. and Elizabeth C. Dunstable, both more than seventy years of age, have fought shot guns and revolvers, and bravely say they will shoot anyone who dares to interfere with them.

The note, couched in the most possible language, was written on a piece of lined paper, and was found by the sister morning laid to the door of the little home in which the sisters keep their only home. It reads in part:

"If you don't pay us $500 will kill both or either of you and twin your village around your necks."

"Go to Nashua and draw the money from the bank. Then go to Lowell and stay over night at a hotel and then go to Boston. Stop at any hotel you want, we will find you. Follow the trail of the cloth like this piece. Do not tell the police or you will die. If you fail we will either or both of you will be killed and your village will be twisted about your necks until it is a mess."

"Will we not? I should say not," said the younger of the sisters, Miss Hannah, who is very near the allotted time.

CHARGE FEDERAL CHIEF WITH CONTRACT FRAUD

TIMOTHY J. SWIFT HELD IN $2,000—SAY HE TOOK CASH FROM TEMPLETON FIRM.

Timothy J. Swift, for fifteen years assistant chief of the Federal Building, and very well known, was arrested today charged with having received $2,000 for the procurement of a contract with the government for Burns, Healy & Co.

KILLED BY TRAIN; HINT FOUL PLAY.

There is some question whether Sam Rogers, who was found dying on the railroad track at Ipswich, was killed by a train or by foul play.

Chance Information That Caused a Burst of Activity in the Search of Slayer of Girl Whose Torso Was Found at Winthrop.

Spurred on to more vigorous action by information which came from an unexpected source, Chief of Police McNeill and Inspector Douglas of Winthrop sought all last night for an individual whom they believe can throw light on the problem of death revealed by the finding of the dismembered body of a young woman in a suit case off the Winthrop Yacht Club thirteen days ago.

Neither the Chief nor Inspector Douglas went to bed until 5 o'clock this morning.

The names of five doctors have been mentioned in police circles in connection with the mystery. At least three of these are reported missing. The other two, who were summer residents at Winthrop, have not yet been located.

To-day there will be a conference of the five persons who are said to have identified the photograph of one suspect, who has been missing since the body was found, with the police in Boston. This man, whose photograph is in the hands of the police, is the man who is believed to have purchased the suit case in which the mutilated torso was found. He may or may not be one of the five physicians whose movements the police are now tracing.

TO DRAIN LEWIS LAKE

Seeking still further light on the mystery, the police will today drain Lewis Lake at Winthrop to see if there is any trace of the body of the girl who was found in the suit case. It is perfectly possible that the suit case and possibly a second suit case or package containing the body of the young woman were thrown into Lewis Lake, and that one of the suit cases ended up through the sluiceway, to be found at the Winthrop Yacht Club.

While this search will be through the lake, it is not likely that it will be a success. The police are now looking for the suit case in the water. The police are now looking for the suit case in the water. The police are now looking for the suit case in the water.

NURSE ABSOLVES HERSELF

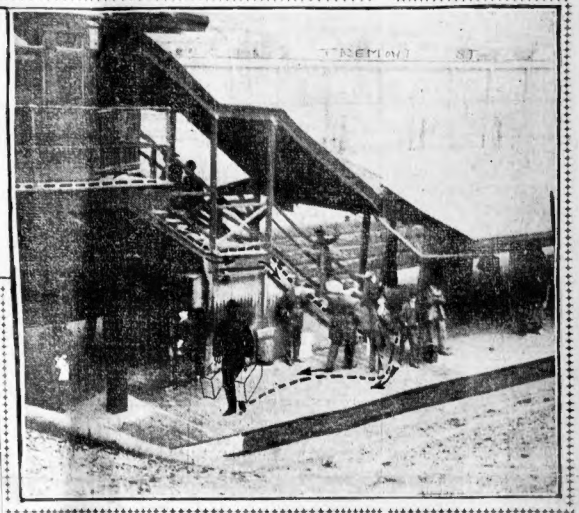

Chief Harris yesterday called into his office so Reverend John H. Harris, who made a story that a nurse had attended the girl who was found in the suit case. The nurse's story was heard, and when she was asked to sign a statement, she refused. The nurse is now being investigated by the police.

FIND BODY OF RICH MAN; BULLET IN HEAD

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The body of a rich man, who was found in the water, was found today. The man was found in the water, and the police are now looking for the suit case in the water.

WILL KEEP AFTER SUSPECT.

If these men positively identify the person alleged, the State police will continue to look for the suspect. The police are now looking for the suit case in the water.

SUBWAY STATION WHERE SUSPECT IS THOUGHT TO HAVE TAKEN TRAIN

New Mystery Facts Amazing; Police May ASK CHASE INQUIRY

Chief Harris of Swampscott Finds
Sensation in His Investigation of Woman's Death.

Chief of Police Harris of Swampscott couldn't resist the temptation which he has just received concerning the mysterious death of Miss Jennie P. Chase, who was found in a suit case off the Winthrop Yacht Club thirteen days ago. Harris is now looking for the suit case in the water.

Chief Harris is much impressed with the importance of the new clue thus obtained. "If I were to make public the information which has come into my possession in the last few days," said he, "it would create a bigger sensation than anything I have ever seen."

BOY'S SHARE WAS $5,000.

When questioned that the old man was not allowed to see the lantern, who was partner and Eddie Cuddey were waiting for him.

BISHOP DELANEY TO ADDRESS KNIGHTS

"Knighthood and the Duty of the House" will be the subject of an address by the Right Rev. John B. Delaney, bishop of Worcester, N. H., at the Church of the Immaculate Conception to-morrow evening. Bishop Delaney's sermon will be the subject of a paper presented under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus.

Sale of Sample Lace and Embroidery Strips

Laces	Embroideries
This is a continuation of the immense sale which began on Monday and aroused so much interest among the shoppers of Boston, especially the Milliners and Dressmakers. We secure semi-annually from the leading St. Gall and Saxony makers their stock of sample strips and trial ends. Many of the former are styles which will not reach America in regular goods until next season and all will average better than the stock lines which are to follow. A chance is offered to make a season's purchases at about one-fourth the usual prices.	As a companion to the laces we inaugurate Wednesday a sweeping sale of 10,000 yards of sample strips of embroideries from St. Gall. It is the sample strip collection of the largest manufacturers and represents only the better and finer grades of material and work. New England has never before had such a sale. This opportunity to get a full supply of these dainty goods at one-quarter to one-half the regular price is so absolutely unparalleled that every woman who recognizes and appreciates deeply cut prices should take advantage of it.
There are: White Irish Laces, in endless variety, Baby Irish Laces in many widths, some embroidered Laces, Venise and Net Combination Laces, Embroidered Net Laces in many combinations of Irish and Cluny effects, Point Gate and Rose Point Laces, Irish Laces, Baby Irish Laces, Irish Laces, some of Hand-made lace, Pompadour and Net Laces, Black Silk Applique Laces in many styles, Black Silk Net and Baby Irish Combination Laces and many others.	The strips average from one to seven yards in length and we cannot cut them under any circumstances. They consist of beautiful Swiss Crochet, and Venise, in matched widths of edgings, insertions and bands suitable for trimmings on waists, dresses and lingerie. The entire purchase of 10,000 yards has been divided into five lots and marked at values which are unprecedented.

Sunday American

WHOLE WORLD OF PORTS BOSTON AMERICAN EXPERTS BY ITS CORPS OF

DEEPEST HEADLINE TO-DAY

Andover Bay, 1891, and Sweet Marie, 1893, will underwrite the record of the headship track between the two nations and winning records, respectively. It is only a new whether there are two horses have the speed to set, for the conditions are perfect for the battle against Father Time.

Both James Y. Galloway driver and one of the world's greatest drivers, and Al McDonald, who handles the ribbons over the great McKim's mare, are confident of securing their respective records.

The stallion is in splendid shape for a supreme effort, and there will not be repetition of the fiasco on the part of the promoter which spoiled the previous edition of the Breder's track. The horses will be paced by Mike the Tramp, who has earned so many trophies and paces, and can run a mile in 1:59 and know the track like a turn of hand.

In the case of Andover Bay it is his owner's ambition to first give his stallion a record of 1:57, or thereabouts, without the aid of a wind shield, dirt shield or any other contrivance in front of him, but with the wind resistance, and there, with this accomplished, to go after Dan Patch, the wind shield champion. It is considered that Andover Bay can beat the Patch record, and if it does, it will be a record for the world.

There is a record that the afternoon edition will force the matter, and if the Patch record is not set, the afternoon edition will be a record for the world.

GILBERT SCROGS DRAW.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4.—Gilbert and Harry Scroggs, fought a terrific battle for the National Amateur title. Both men were on their feet and comparatively unhurt at the end of the referee gave the decision in a draw.

'DIG' STANLEY MAY OPPOSE WALSH HERE

Digger Stanley, the English bantam who arrived on the coast yesterday, is expected to have Jimmy Walsh for his first opponent, and he would like to fight the bout at the place of the Douglas Club, as he has there would be more money in it. It is said that Stanley is a very good fighter, and he is expected to give Walsh a hard time.

MISS ABBELL MAY FIGHT

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 4.—The third Irish amateur meeting, the Kentucky Trouting Horse Breeder's Association was held here yesterday afternoon. The feature was the $21,000 feature for 3-year-old fillies. As has often been the case, the year's feature was a decided upset to the talent. Before the race Miss A. sold for $20 to $30 for the dollar, but she did take the first in comparatively easy fashion. She sold at $30 to the $30, but Miss Adell, an outsider in the betting, took the next three heats.

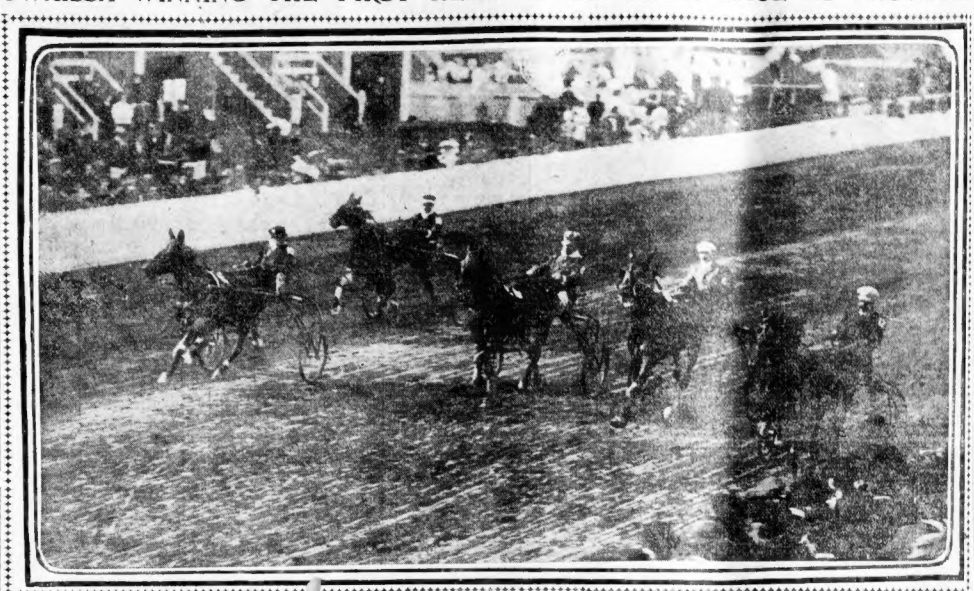

SUSPEND TWO RIDERS FOR LIFE

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Roland Gault, the new chairman of the Federation of American Motor Cyclists competition committee, disqualified for life four riders, who, while under suspension and after being warned, competed at an "outlaw meet" in Boston last Saturday. The men are: John E. Lohr, Lynn, Mass.; Robert Scott, William, Mass.; and Robert Scott, and C. G. Brown, Brockton, Mass.

NO FAVORITISM AT HARVARD

"There is no favoritism in Harvard athletics," said Thomas N. Perkins, the well-known Harvard captain, in addressing the Harvard freshmen in the faculty recitation room yesterday afternoon. He said that the freshmen should be treated as equals, and that there should be no favoritism in the faculty recitation room.

The Desert Sands Produce the Horned Toad And Our Commer- cial System Pro- duces Rockefeller

Each is the Result of Conditions and Circumstances—Neither Can Be Blamed

Copyright, 1905, by Hearst Company

Rockefeller, of the thousand millions, has become such a big thing in American life that we hardly talk or think of anything else. Magazines live upon him, clergymen discuss violently the taking of his money—they usually take it, obeying conscience's final order. Rockefeller loses all his hair, and we talk about that. Rockefeller buys a wig, and we talk of that. Ida Tarbell, about once a month, scratches Rockefeller all up—we talk of her and him.

Those Rockefeller tears the other day were interesting, and they were GENUINE.

He spoke of money, and wept. He spoke of old friends, and wept. He spoke of the first dollars he earned (he kept them), and wept.

He told how a man lent him money, and wept. In the crowd that stood before him many men were wiping dry eyes.

As an individual, poor old Mr. Rockefeller is just exactly no better and no worse than thousands and hundreds of thousands of other money-chasing Americans that have got all the money they could and now plan to buy salvation with one per cent. of it, or less.

Mr. Rockefeller has done what every little grocery storekeeper in every little village has done—only he has done it more thoroughly and made a thousand millions out of the whole country instead of making fifty thousand out of one small village.

Rockefeller, so far as we know, does not adulterate his kerosene. In that respect he is better than the little grocer that would be Rockefeller if he knew how.

Don't make the mistake of looking upon Rockefeller as a phenomenon created by himself. He simply grew, just as red spots grow on the man that has smallpox in his blood.

The United States has a bad case of money poisoning, and it breaks out in such spots as Rockefeller, Morgan, life insurance cheats, etc. Only the ignorant man BLAMES Rockefeller, or holds him responsible for what he does or for what happens in the country.

In sandy, hot and desolate tracts you find horned toads, creeping lizards and other unpleasant things. Along the swampy, smelly, muggy edge of the old Nile you could find crocodiles—they shed bitter tears long before Rockefeller was heard of.

The horned toad and the crocodile are produced by circumstances, conditions of soil, climate, etc.

Irrigate the desert, make it beautiful and fertile—your horned toads and other vermin will vanish.

Give this country a real government of the people, ENFORCE LAWS AGAINST BIG MEN—first making the laws wisely—take power away from the pocketbooks and give it to the people—then you will see your Rockefeller, Morgans, trusts and insurance swindlers disappear—as rat-killers leave when the right kind of population moves in.

There is nothing worse for the mind than to mistake CAUSES for EFFECTS. We have told you that savages on the Hawaiian and other islands used to "cure" smallpox and other infectious diseases by taking shark shells and scraping at the individual sores.

It hurt the sick men and women dreadfully—they cried just as Rockefeller cries now—but it did the people no good. The disease spread just the same and the individual patients never got well.

Americans must not be like ignorant savages and think to cure the national commercial sickness by scraping apocryphally at individual sores. It is no use having cutting Ida Tarbell scraping away at Rockefeller, or deep Mr. Hughes cutting away at John A. McCall. It might be well to disinfect those particularly offensive demonstrations of disease occasionally. But a real cure, to help the nation, must go deeper and deal WITH THE DISEASE, not with red spots on the nation's skin.

You have got to arrange laws that will give to the people the national monopolies that have made Rockefeller possible.

The people of the United States should be beyond all comparison the PEOPLE of the world.

And they would be that, had they not foolishly given up a monopoly of their wealth to make a few Rockefeller incompetencies the RICHEST INDIVIDUALS OF THE WORLD.

The Shrieking Siren Out of Place on an Auto frightens horses—small blame to them—and it frightens pedestrians.

The only rightful purpose of a horn on an automobile is to give warning of its approach.

If the warning is more terrifying than the unsuspected dash of the machine itself, it will only add to the danger.

All the civilized countries of Europe have prohibited the use of sirens. This should be done by State or local authorities here, if the owners of auto cannot see that the use of this appliance is a bit of rowdism, justly liable to bring its perpetrator into common contempt.

THERE WILL BE NO MORE OF THEM

W. F. Hearst, Editor BOSTON AMERICAN

We desire to express our gratitude to you for the series of forceful and instructive articles by Professor Frank Parsons on municipal ownership now appearing in your columns. We trust they will continue as nothing of equal force and potency on this general subject has ever before appeared in a Massachusetts daily. The immediate importance of popular education on these lines cannot be overestimated.

QUINCY COMMITTEE.

The increasing use on automobiles in this country of a shrill and strident invention of a man unused to nerves called a "siren" is fit subject for repressive legislation. The noises of a city are fierce enough without taking this shrieking wail of the sea into our avenues. It is them—and it frightens pedestrians.

Lessons in Municipal Ownership V. Liverpool's Street Cars

By Prof. Frank Parsons

HERE is a leaf from the book of municipal ownership of street railways. The book that has been growing very rapidly in size and importance in the last few years.

Liverpool in 1907 had a system of horse car lines operated by a private company. The city wanted electric traction and other improvements which the company refused to make.

So the municipality bought out the company for $2,000,000 a little more than actual value and arranged at once to scrap the entire system and adopt electric traction.

The city reconstructed the lines, increased the carrying capacity, reduced the fares nearly one-half, largely increased the wages of employees, cut down their hours nearly one-half and supplied them with uniforms free.

And yet some people would have us believe that municipal ownership is not progressive.

Not satisfied with tearing out the old plant and putting in an electric equipment, improving the speed, comfort and safety of the service, raising wages, shortening hours and reducing fares about one-half, the city determined to clear off the capital so that fares might be further reduced almost to the cost of operation.

Do you know of any private company that has a record like that?

From the manager, one of the ablest street railway men I have ever met, I have this statement about the Liverpool trackage:

"The enterprise is worth $5,000,000 more than its capitalization, and in twenty-three years the debt will be extinguished. The trackage pays a large sum each year in reduction of local taxes, for a million and a half is saved to the people in lower fares each year.

"The enterprise has saved the city one-half of the passengers pay the two-cent fare. About $2,000,000 a year, or one-third of the total wage payment, represents the direct gain of the employees through municipal ownership.

"It would have cost $2,000,000 less if we had worked the same time the same hours the same wages as the private company did, so that in hours and wages the men have gained an equivalent of about 50 per cent.

"The voluntary section of the city without pressure from the men.

Do you know any private trolley company that has voluntarily improved the condition of its men 50 per cent., or cut hours and raised wages of its own accord to an appreciable extent whatever?

Does any thoughtful workman and safety of the service, raising wages, shortening hours and reducing fares about one-half, the city determined to

BOSTON MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP LEAGUE.

Election Precinct..... Ward.....

I, the undersigned, enroll myself a member of the Boston Municipal Ownership League. I pledge myself to every honorable effort to bring about the public ownership of public utilities in the city of Boston and in the State of Massachusetts. I believe that a city lighting plant to supply the city's needs, and the needs of the citizens as well, is one object to be attained.

The attempt now being made to elect a Legislature which will pass measures permitting the establishment of an electric railway monopoly in Massachusetts and granting exclusive franchises to a favored syndicate shows the necessity of a prompt and concerted movement for public ownership by all citizens, irrespective of party.

Little Editorials from the People

AND LINCOLN WAS RIGHT

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN

Why is it that there are millions of people in this country, this glorious land of the free, who are actually on the verge of starvation? Why is it that we, the workers, who produce all the necessities of life are deprived of all the goods that we, by our own hands, have created?

Abraham Lincoln once said: "It has no happened that in all ages of the world, none have, without labor, enjoyed a large proportion of the fruits. This is wrong and should not continue. To secure to each worker the whole product of his labor, or as nearly as possible, is a worthy object of any good government."

In that the kind of government we are getting is such a bad one, we see many of the good things we produce over and above what we need to sustain our bodies. The children who are working in the mills and factories and you find the same thing in Boston.

Of the great bulk of editorials which you have written on all kinds of subjects and conditions, yours entitled "The Hearst Company," was an example.
